Rasulullah s.a.w An Excellent Leader

- Rasulullah was not only a messenger but became a leader for his ummah, the head of the family, an Imam, the head of the military and others.
- Among the many examples of Rasulullah's leadership that we can exemplify in our daily lives are:
- First : Lessons from Rasulullah s.a.w as a Messenger

As a messenger, Rasulullah had shown the best example in carrying out dakwah to mankind, which should be followed by all Muslims.

- Second : Rasulullah saw As A Nation Leader

Rasulullah s.a.w showed many examples, which can be followed regarding this. As a Messenger and acting as a leader and the head of the nation at the same time, Rasulullah consulted others and appreciated the opinions and comments of those under him. In this way, indirectly, he made it easy for everyone to approach him.

- Third: Rasulullah saw As The Head of The Family

In the aspects of family life, Rasulullah saw had set a good example, which can be followed by the head of a household in managing his family.

- Remember Rasulullah's advice in a well-known hadith which means: "Each of you is a leader and you will be asked about your leadership."
