The Role of Muslim Community in a Multi Religious Society

- From the earliest time, Islam acknowledges the status of human beings as the best creation of Allah, fact that there exist among human beings many religions and system of beliefs and values.
- Islam as a global religion and a way of life, is a clear proof of its universal nature and this is the religion brought by our Prophet Muhammad s.a.w for mankind. A religion that brings peace and prosperity to all.
- This Islam is not just a religion that extols good values but in fact Islam is more than that. Islam is an international religion and a global religion.
- The first thing that we should do to promote Islam as a global religion, is to increase our taqwa to Allah s.w.t Rasulullah s.a.w said in his hadith: “Remain taqwa to Allah wherever you are, and do good deeds to remove all the bad deeds that you have done, and interact with others with good behaviour”
- The second thing we can do is to spread the message of “Ukhuwwah Insaniah”, or the brotherhood of mankind and trough this message, we can show to all that the difference in beliefs will not be a hindrance for us to work together for common goods.
- The last role, we must use this opportunity of living in a multi religious society to show the real Islam and look at non-Muslims as people who are receptacles of our dakwah by internalizing the real Islam, as a religion that brings blessings to mankind, and as a global religion.
- Let us not forget our roles as Muslims in a multi religious society. Let us be united, have taqwa and go for success.
