

Summarised Friday Sermon

10 OCTOBER 2008

Understanding Revelation In The Contemporary Context

- Taqwa will drive us towards performing all our duties, and refraining from all that Allah s.w.t. has prohibited us from doing.
- The Holy Quran highlight to us the honourable acts and values that we must uphold, and those acts that we must shun, no matter where we are.
- A successful Muslim is one who performs his obligation and duties, such as prayers, at the designated time, and in full concentration and sincerity. He does not neglect his duties to God. At the same time, he also fulfills all duties towards others.
- The Holy Prophet s.a.w. was at all times aware of the conditions of his society. This awareness and understanding is very important, in order for us to make our religious life a success.
- As Muslims, we do not condone a lifestyle that deviates from the path of Allah s.w.t. A lifestyle that only considers one's satisfaction and desires, whilst ignoring totally the needs and suffering of others.
- To be a community of excellence, we ought to support all developmental initiatives that will bring about better conditions for mankind, both in this world and the hereafter, whether affecting individuals or the society at large.
- Let us also strive to increase our knowledge by attending classes and lectures that will refresh our understanding of the beauty of Islam, and that reminds us on the importance for Muslims to hold strongly to these values, as well as be able to adjust themselves to the development and prosperity of our country and this world.

Summarized By: Darul Makmur Mosque
mosque without borders