OVERCOMING ECONOMIC CHALLENGES

- Currently, the global economy is deeply affected by the current financial turmoil. To a certain extent, it will affect our personal lives. In Islam, we are taught to manage well our lives in this world.
- Therefore, my dear brothers, today we will share with you some basic steps on preparing ourselves to overcome this current challenge.
- First is to be moderate in our expenditure. We all need to spend and we want to spend, whether for our basic necessities, or beyond our basic needs.
- The next thing we need to do is to save adequately. Our savings will be useful especially if prices continue to increase, and we may not have enough cash from our salaries to pay for expenses.
- When we are moderate in our expenditure, when we plan things well, and we help those in need, Insha Allah, we will be able to fortify further the economic resilience of our community.
