

Summarised Friday Sermon

21 MARCH 2008

RASULULLAH'S LOVE FOR HIS UMMAH: HOW IS OUR LOVE FOR RASULULLAH SAW ?

- Rasulullah s.a.w. truly loves his ummah. He is very compassionate and do not hold any negative thoughts about anyone. In fact, his life is full of examples of his forgiveness. He would seek Allah's guidance for an enemy, although he had the choice to ask Allah s.w.t. anything, such as for the enemy to perish.
- The Prophet's love for his ummah is very profound. The Prophet is very concerned about the well-being of his ummah. It is also for his love for his ummah that he is granted by Allah the ability to give syafa'ah for them on the day of judgement.
- We are now in the midst of this fragrant season of his birth time. Let's express our happiness with continuously reciting the selawat for the Prophet. Indeed, the nearest to him is one who always remember him.
- Next, we need to emulate the Holy Prophet in our daily lives. Follow his footsteps. The Prophet s.a.w. exhibits honourable character, is not rough, and does not repel evil with evil. The Prophet s.a.w. holds no revenge, but loves to forgive and is always compassionate.
- Hopefully, by emulating the Prophet in all matters, and by reciting the selawat upon him, our love for him will grow. Hopefully, we will become a model for others, and bring blessings to all Ameen.

Summarized By: Darul Makmur Mosque
Mosque without borders