

Summarised Friday Sermon

19 DECEMBER 2008

SELF - INTROSPECTION

- We are now in the last weeks of the Hijrah year 1429, and we are fast approaching the end of 2008. Let us take some time on this blessed day to assess our performance this year. This is for us to learn from our weaknesses and mistakes, and to improve ourselves in the coming year.
- Let us spend time to introspect ourselves, and assess our relationship with Allah s.w.t. Indeed, Allah s.w.t. loves to hear our prayers and our pleas for His forgiveness.
- Apart from strengthening our relationship with Allah s.w.t., our faith requires of us to introspect our relationship with fellow mankind and with the environment that Allah has created.
- Apart from that, we must also assess our relationship with our parents, our relatives and friends. What is the state of our relationship with them?
- Let us strengthen our resolve to become better individuals; to become good Muslims who will always bring goodness to those around them. May this new year see us becoming excellent Muslims InshaAllah, Ameen Ya Rabbal `Alamin.
