

Summarised Friday Sermon

21 NOVEMBER 2008

THE IMPORTANCE of TRUTHFULNESS in LIFE

- Alhamdulillah, for the last two weeks, we have discussed the basic attributes of the messengers of Allah. Such is the importance of truthfulness and trustworthiness in life.
- This value not only allows others to trust us, but it is the proof and evidence of the fact that the Prophets and Messengers only conveyed what came to them from Allah s.w.t.
- This value flows through the lives of the prophets and messengers of Allah. This is very evident in the life of the Holy Prophet Muhammad s.a.w., as the chief of all messengers and prophets.
- Such is how the Prophet s.a.w taught us to always be truthful in all things. To say the truth, to do the right things. To be truthful in our intentions. Because when we are truthful in our lives, we will truly live the Islam taught by the Prophet s.a.w.; a religion of love, truthfulness and patience.
- InshaAllah, when we hold on strongly to this value, we fulfill our promise to love the Prophet s.a.w. and to follow his footsteps in coming closer to Allah s.w.t.

Summarized By: Darul Makmur Mosque

Mosque without borders