

Summarised Friday Sermon

21 SEPTEMBER 2007

RAMADAN INSPIRES EXEMPLARY FAMILIES

- For every good deed done in Ramadan, the rewards are multiplied. Every doa shall be fulfilled. Truly there is no other reward but heaven for those who fast sincerely for Allah swt
- Take this opportunity to inculcate patience and good character in our selves. This is the time for us to increase our knowledge by reading our Holy Book, the Quran
- Ramadan is a month full of rahmah (mercy). It is the month that makes the heart grows with compassion and softness. To be a Muslim that would do good, spread compassion and be caring. A Muslim who always show compassion and kindness.
- Let us carry forward the compassion and kindness of Ramadan to our family life. One of the most important factors in building a harmonious family is love and care.
- This Ramadan, for example, we can teach our families the true meaning of the fast, by doing our ibadah together, reading the Quran as a jemaah. Teach our families kindness and compassion by helping a family and those in need
- In teaching religion to our families, we need to show them a way to live their lives that is guided by Islamic principles so that they would be good Muslims and can easily face any challenges that come their way.

Summarized By: Darul Makmur Mosque

Mosque without borders