PROFOUND FAITH AS A CATALYST FOR FUTURE

- Iman manifests itself in good deeds and values. When we claim to have iman, but our actions and behaviour show otherwise, we are doing nothing more than just building castles in the air.
- All good deeds should bring about positive changes in our lives.
- When we perform the acts of worship, when we pray, recite the Holy Quran, help others, seek knowledge, take advice and guidance, all these acts should make us stronger Muslims.
- This is the true impact of iman. Iman which will change us for the better. Iman which will make us desire goodness for other people.
- Let us strengthen our iman by seeking profound knowledge. Knowledge that will move our minds and hearts to think about the greatness of Allah s.w.t.
- Let us develop the love for Allah and His Prophet. Love that will motivate us to always emulate the Holy Prophet in shaping ourselves to become good Muslims who bring goodness to others.
