

Summarised Friday Sermon

24 OCTOBER 2008

RESILIENT in the FACE of ECONOMIC CHALLENGES

- Today, all of us are affected, in one way or another, by the challenges and difficulties around us. But as an ummah with a strong religious identity and resilient faith, we should derive valuable lessons from the challenges that we face, and we must remain confident in overcoming them by making relevant preparations.
- Although the global economy outlook is gloomy at this point, we can still derive from it important lessons for us and transform it into a learning opportunity.
- First: Money and wealth are not the ultimate goals and objectives. They only serve as means to a larger and more meaningful end.
- Second: We should spend our wealth in the best possible way; to fulfill our basic needs in life, and to do good with it and to spread justice and fairness in society.
- Third: The value of trustworthiness in dealing with money and wealth is extremely important. When we become untrustworthy, many problems and crises can happen.
- May Allah s.w.t. help us to overcome the present challenges with patience, perseverance and confidence. May Allah s.w.t. give us strength and success in doing so InshaAllah.

Summarized By: Darul Makmur Mosque
Mosque without borders