THE ROLE OF PARENTS AND PARENTS IN LAW IN CREATING SUCCESSFUL MARRIAGES

- Islam stresses on the importance of peace and happiness in life. The family institution contributes greatly towards this peace and happiness.
- One of the key contributing factors to a peaceful and happy marriage and family life are the roles played by parents and parents-in-laws.
- One important contribution that they can make is to offer advice, doa and motivational words and guidance.
- Hence, as parents and in-laws, you should play the following roles:

First: : Be fair and just in treating your own child and his/her spouse (i.e. your son/daughter in law)

Second: Give them their right and space to build their own families. If they seek your advice, offer them constructive suggestions and in a wise and relevant manner.

- Insha Allah, when we follow this advice, our children's marriage will have more peace and harmony.
