

Summarised Friday Sermon

3 OCTOBER 2008

PROPHET MUHAMMAD ( pbuh ) AS BLESSINGS for ALL

- Islam touches all aspects of our lives. It offers simple solutions for problems and difficulties that we face. This is because they come from the Creator, and He is Most Knowing of His creations.
- For this, Allah s.w.t. gave the best message and Risalah to the Holy Prophet s.a.w. A message of prosperity, peace and development. Allah s.w.t. describes the Prophet s.a.w. as a mercy and blessings to the universe.
- Rasulullah s.a.w. was known as the 'Al-Amin', which means the trustworthy, as he never tell lies. He was also a responsible and patient young man, as evident from his work as a shepherd.
- Aisyah r.a. had been asked about the Prophet's personality. She said "The Prophet's akhlak is the Quran."
- His personality and stories illustrate to us the teachings and meanings of the Quran. These are the attributes of the Prophet who brought with him the message of Islam.
- Let us understand and appreciate the approaches of the Prophet. Let us strengthen further the values of compassion in us, in our interactions, conversations with everyone around us. Hopefully, with honourable character and personality, Allah s.w.t. will grant us success and prosperity in our lives Ameen.
