Taqwa Leads To Constancy in Doing Good

- The Holy Prophet s.a.w. gained the love of his ummah for him and for Islam, through his honourable character and personality.
- All of his words and actions are the result of Allah's complete guidance to him.
- He taught us to sympathise with the weak, to forgive, fulfill our promises and rise to do good. He also taught us to cleanse our hearts from all evil things and any form of vengeance.
- The Holy Prophet s.a.w. rejected evil with wisdom and kindness, by doing so, he turned an enemy into a close friend and ally.
- With strong foundations in iman and taqwa, and knowledge of Islam, we will have the confidence to interact warmly with anyone and everyone. Remember that with ihsan (kindness) and rahmah (compassion) to others, Allah the Most Compassionate and Most Merciful will shower us with His kindness and mercy.
