

Summarised Friday Sermon

09 JANUARY 2009

THE VALUE of PEACE and HARMONY in the HOLY QURAN

- One of the values in the Holy Quran is peace and calm for mankind.
- Everyone who reflects upon what the Quran says about these values and upholds them in their lives, will certainly enjoy peace and calm and is able to share it with others.
- This value of peace and calm does not stop with individuals, but also applies to family life. Allah s.w.t. reminds us on the importance of the value of peace and calmness in our relationship with our spouses, and the value of love and mercy in our families.
- Al-Quran also offers a constructive way to secure a peaceful and calm world inhabited by peoples of different backgrounds and cultures. To this end, the Holy Quran calls upon mankind to uphold the value of justice and fairness, because this value will secure peace and prosperity.
- Let us continue to read, understand and practice the teachings and values of the Holy Quran. If we do this sincerely, we will be able to attain peace and calm in our lives. Know that Allah s.w.t. loves those who uphold the values of justice and service to others, at all times. May we be among those whom Allah s.w.t. loves Amin.

Summarized By: Darul Makmur Mosque
Mosque without borders